THE SPEAKERS DID NOT APPEAR

Those Advertised to Address the Conservative Meeting Last Night Were Not Present.

Between thirty and forty members of the Conservative party in Edmonton gathered in the Conservative club rooms last night to hear H. W. Day, of Vancouver, J. M. Moran, of Fort Saskatchewan, and Dr. Crahan, of Saskatoon, speak on the public question of the day. But none of these gentlemen turned up, and the meeting, with no regrets were offered by them, was a non-appearance.

The chair was occupied by A. W. Williamson, Mayor, president of the club, who made a few introductory remarks regarding the absence of the scheduled speakers.

The first speaker was Mr. McKinley, of Spruce Grove. He said he was in the city in the afternoon at the time of the granting of autonomy to the Conservative. He had been invited by Governor Bulfinch and Premier Balfour to attend the meeting, but he was unable to do so. He had been invited by Governor Bulfinch and Premier Balfour to attend the meeting, but he was unable to do so.

The chairman followed in a brief speech in criticism of the Ottawa deal, and then he turned the floor over to Mr. Aylesworth's son, who made a few remarks.

THE CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE.

J. D. Hyndman, the Edmonton Federation of Conservative speakers, was the next speaker. He followed along the lines of the Ottawa deal, and then he turned the floor over to Mr. Aylesworth's son, who made a few remarks.

The title of public opinion has turned to the concluding address, and the speaker, H. W. Day, of Vancouver, J. M. Moran, of Fort Saskatchewan, and Dr. Crahan, of Saskatoon, speak on the public question of the day. But none of these gentlemen turned up, and the meeting, with no regrets were offered by them, was a non-appearance.

FRIDAY, MAY 8, 1908.

The Opposition press never did it. It excluded readers of more unmixed dog-wash than the arguments by which it is sought to inflame the public mind with the notion that the rights or liberties of the people of Manitoba are threatened by the proposed amendments to the Dominion Election Law.

It should be a sufficient reason for the proposed amendment to say that the Federal election cannot at present

One of these bright journals demands to know why the Federal political divisions are not made to coincide with the registration districts, and the necessity of transferring names has avoided. This bland proposal is bound to make its appearance, and reveals the cloven hoof of the Robber Government. This was precisely the point they aimed at in passing the registration monstrosity. If that Government could delineate the boundaries of the Federal constituencies, the results of Federal elections in Maryland, would be a matter of foregone

If Manitoba is affected by the provisions of the proposed amendment is affected only because the Government of that Province has refused to prepare its voters' lists in a way which makes them applicable for the purposes of a Federal election. A complaint of the Manitoba Government is based and based alone on the ground that the law would prevent them determining the boundaries of Federal constituencies and interfering with their high and holy purpose of preventing Liberal electors from casting their votes in Federal elections.

"That if the Edmonton Journal speaks for the Conservative party and I presume it does—the policy of the Government is to encourage the immigration of those who want to settle in this country. It makes no difference how they come here, they may be settlers for all we care. It means anything, it means nothing. We will not encourage the immigration of those who do not desire to settle here, that is the policy. Where, then, is he going to get his letters for our vacant lands? He is going to get them from the people who were here, they would only be a half what is required to settle our vacant country. He is going to get the policy of the Liberal party as laid down by the Hon. Mr. Gault, as Minister of the Interior in 1896, and the settlement and prevention."

These words were used after reading the letter of the Hon. Mr. Gault to the "immigration" plank of the Conservative and Liberal parties as forth in the Edmonton Journal. The Hon. Mr. Gault said that the Journal declared the policy of the Government to be:

"The Government is to encourage the immigration of those who want to settle in this country. It makes no difference how they come here, they may be settlers for all we care."

It is not the column the Journal is pointing out that it conceives to be the

The communists also made no reference to the department. I do not speak with any idea of weakening the department, but only to point out that they were not able to get at facts of the case and to explain the situation fully and fairly to the people. For this, they said, they were depending in the outside world. He read this:

Many of the inspectors of similar units, and under a law in the Civil Service Act was examination of persons appointed to positions requiring special training, and the inspectors of prisoners in the outside service department have been appointed undergoing the civil service examination.

That is, the communists would be to the great advantage, financially, but probably literally they will not stop to ask whether or not the people of the world are the part of the communists and are here to criticize the one who was criticizing the many. The minister said that there was of little use, for that was to be determined in the future. The minister said that these hon. gentlemen ought to like him to ask the hon. Mr. North Toronto (Mr. Fox) whether he would like to go for South Lanark (Mr. Harkin) the only two gentlemen who have had the responsibility of the government. He said that then would have done it if he had been at the head of a department. He said that he was proud of this kind of leadership and that he would suppose that it was these communists to a department of marine and
